Commander's Call

Comrades and Auxiliary Members,

November is here, the holidays are right around the corner, and somehow we're already getting ready to sell Christmas trees. Before we get too far ahead of ourselves, though, let's take a look back at some of what's been happening around the Post.

Our POW/MIA Ceremony went very well, and once again the Hylton High School Air Force JROTC did an outstanding job. They have been a part of this ceremony with us for several years now, and we're always glad to have them join us.

We also celebrated the Navy Birthday with a great turnout. As part of the celebration, we showed a video from the Navy along with another from the DOW. Thanks to everyone who came out to help us recognize the Navy and its long history of service.

The MOC/MOCA Cornhole Tournament ran smoothly and was a lot of fun. Whether you were there to play, watch, or just give somebody a hard time about their throwing ability, it was a good day and another successful event at the Post.

The Author Showcase was also a big hit. We had a great group of authors come out, and the response was good enough that they're already asking us to do it again next year – if not sooner. A big thank you goes to Comrades Goya and Ortiz for all the work they put into making the event happen. There was a lot going on behind the scenes, and their efforts made the day a success.

On the 24th, we held another Bourbon and Cigar event, and it was awesome. If you missed this one, keep an eye out for the next one and stop by. And despite the name, you don't have to be a bourbon drinker – they have beer and wine too!

The Auxiliary put on another fantastic Trunk or Treat for the community and passed out candy to lots of kids. Our Entertainment Committee knocked it out of the park with our Halloween party!

Over ➥

Very well done!

Looking ahead, PRVC will be holding a ceremony at the National Cemetery at Quantico on Veterans Day at 11am.

The Diversity Lodge will be holding a cookout for us on 14 November from Noon to 4pm. And later that night is the Marine Corps Ball at 6pm.

Thanksgiving will be here before we know it. We'll have a special Thanksgiving meal available for lunch that day, and the Post will close at 3 p.m. so our employees can get home and spend some time with their families.

And then come the Christmas trees.

The Saturday after Thanksgiving, the truck is expected to arrive at around 9 a.m., and we'll need plenty of help getting it unloaded. There are a lot of trees on that truck, so the more people we have, the easier it is on everyone. If you're available that morning, come on out, lend a hand, and help us get the lot ready. Christmas tree sales will begin as soon as we finish unloading.

We're also in the process of changing over our phone system. There may be a few growing pains while we make the transition, so please bear with us if something doesn't work quite the way you expect right away. Once everything is in place, we'll have a better phone system while also lowering our costs, so the short-term inconvenience should be well worth it.

Finally, New Year's Eve tickets are now on sale!

We've got an awesome band lined up, and tickets are only $50. The party starts at 9 p.m., so make sure you eat dinner before you arrive and then come ready to enjoy the night. You'll find all the details in the New Year's Eve flyer later in this newsletter.

Between Thanksgiving, Christmas trees, holiday events, and New Year's Eve, we've got a busy couple of months ahead of us.

I'll see you around the Post.

Greeting Auxiliary 1503!

I guess fall has arrived – leaves everywhere, mainly in our yards! The colors are beautiful though.

Our October meeting took quite a turn! President Monika was in Germany. SVP Betty was due to step to the podium. Unfortunately, she had a mishap that day and was unable to make it. She was at a car wash and stepped up on the sidewalk and hit her head on a metal piece of equipment. 20+ staples and a night in the hospital later, she is home resting and healing. She is doing well, just restless – she does not like to sit still! She's a true rock star! Please remember Betty in your prayers.

We had a great turnout with 36 members! Welcome our eight newest members – April, MaryAnn, Michelle, Mark, Tamarra, Jeongnam, Kennetha and Jung. We look forward to meeting/seeing you soon! We also had TWELVE Auxiliary members who are Veterans in attendance! We appreciate you and thank you again for your service to our nation.

National Home Chairman Peggy held the drawing for the first quarter winner of a VFW National Home Life Membership. Congratulations to Janice Gardner!

This month we will draw a winner for an Auxiliary Life Membership 'upgrade' from annual members who paid their dues by October 31st.

Calling on all members to help with recruiting – we are SO close to reaching a HUGE goal by December 31st. As of this writing, we need 29 members!! Let's do this!

Hospital Chairman Tammy has invited the Veterans from Brookdale Assisted Living to lunch at Post 1503 on Veterans Day. If you are able to stop by and say hello I know they will appreciate it.

Americanism Chairman Ellen asked everyone to get out and VOTE on November 3rd! She also asked us to always reach out and check in on family and friends, and especially during the upcoming holidays.

Trunk-or-Treat was great this year! So many kiddos, and their costumes were awesome. Thanks to everyone who came out to help.

This year, the Auxiliary Illustrating America Art Contest has a new deadline of December 15th, for entry submissions. You can find the application and rules at: https://vfwauxiliary.org/what-we-do/youth-activities/

We delivered Fall Wish List items to our schools. We also helped students create Veterans Day crafts and cards. We had lunch with Veterans at Potomac Place Assisted Living. We welcomed Veterans from two different Honor Flights at the Marine Corp Museum. We attended the Internment of cremated remains of 20 Veterans and 2 spouses that were unclaimed at Quantico National Cemetery.

Our next Auxiliary Breakfast will be LUNCH! Please meet at 11:30 at Hector's Lake Ridge. 2233 Tacketts Mill Dr.

We encourage you to get involved with our Auxiliary! We are very active, and we welcome you to join us, not only at our meetings, but in our service to Veterans and our community.

Should you have any questions or concerns, please reach out to President Monika monika.walczyk@yahoo.com 571-232-0187

Military Order Purple Heart

Native American History Month

For more than two centuries, Native Americans have stood among the most dedicated defenders of the United States. Their service – rooted in cultural traditions of courage, honor, and protection of community – resonates deeply with organizations such as the Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) and the Military Order of the Purple Heart (MOPH), whose missions center on sacrifice, patriotism, and remembrance.

Native Americans have served in every major U.S. conflict since the Revolutionary War. During that struggle, tribal nations chose alliances they believed would best safeguard their homelands, fighting on both sides of the conflict. This continued into the War of 1812, when many tribes aligned with the British to resist American expansion, while others fought alongside U.S. forces – including Choctaw warriors who served under Andrew Jackson at the Battle of New Orleans. Their decisions reflected strategic judgment and a warrior ethos that valued duty and community defense.

By the early 20th century, Native Americans were widely recognized for their exceptional military abilities. More than 12,000 served in World War I, despite many not yet being U.S. citizens. Their languages became invaluable assets: Cherokee and Choctaw soldiers transmitted secure communications that German forces could not decipher, laying the foundation for one of the most celebrated contributions in military history.

During World War II, Native Americans volunteered in remarkable numbers. The Navajo Code Talkers – along with Cherokee, Choctaw, Lakota, Meskwaki, and Comanche communicators – developed and operated an unbreakable code that proved decisive in the Pacific theater. Approximately 400 Native Code Talkers transmitted critical messages throughout the war, and Japanese forces never broke the code. Their work directly supported victory in 1945. Native Americans also served prominently on the front lines. Cpl. Ira Hayes, a Pima Marine, became part of one of the most iconic images in American history when he helped raise the flag on Iwo Jima.

Service remained strong through the Vietnam War, where 42,000 Native Americans served – 90 percent of them volunteers. Many cited tribal warrior traditions and a profound sense of duty as motivations for enlistment. Their commitment continues today: since September 11, Native Americans have served at higher rates than any other demographic group, with nearly 19 percent of Native Americans entering military service. Native American women also serve at the highest rate of any female demographic in the nation.

For the VFW and MOPH communities, this legacy is especially meaningful. Native Americans have long stood shoulder–to–shoulder with fellow service members, sharing in the hardships of combat, the bonds of brotherhood and sisterhood, and the enduring commitment to country. Their sacrifices remain a powerful reminder that the defense of freedom has always been a shared endeavor.

Across generations, Native American service members have embodied the highest ideals of the veteran community: valor, loyalty, and devotion to the United States. Their contributions continue to inspire, and their legacy remains one of the most distinguished traditions in American military history.

Military Order of the Cootie Auxiliary

We had a very fun and successful Corn Hole Tournament on 10 OCT! Thank you to everyone who volunteered and to everyone who played, we appreciate your continued support.

The MOCA purchased some wish list items, to include paint by number sets, model car kits, bocce ball set, wooden 3-D puzzles and a giant wooden yard dice set for the patients of the SCI and Poly Trauma units at Richmond VAMC. We had an MOC/MOCA hospital visit with bingo scheduled for 24 OCT, and sadly three people arrived to make the trip to Richmond. THREE people. So, the gifts were delivered that afternoon, and the goodie bags and desserts that were purchased – along with a sincere apology for having to cancel our visit and bingo with the Veterans.

The MOCA has a BAKE SALE planned for Tuesday, 24 NOV in the back bingo hallway. Donations of home baked, prepackaged treats are welcomed and appreciated!!

Thanksgiving

It's that time of the year when we set aside one day to slow down, pause, and be grateful for the extraordinary blessings God has provided us. Offering up heartfelt prayers of thanksgiving on this special day pleases God. Although, it seems our words often float out into the air and are little remembered. So, what might change in our lives if we could be thankful every day of the year and offer prayers of gratitude?

Here are a few things for us to consider this Thanksgiving Day and beyond:

- Thankfulness is simply an attitude. The one thing we can always choose each day, in any situation, is our attitude. Therefore, we always have the ability to choose an attitude of giving thanks each day.
- When things seem to go against us, God wants us to be grateful that His hand holds us and helps us to endure under the strain. That can be a heavy lift for us at times – to look for reasons to be thankful when life is tough, and we are struggling.
- It can be equally difficult for us to be thankful when things are going well. We might not think it would be that way. After all, when things go well, we have much to be grateful for, right? But by our very nature, when life is good, we tend to overlook the bounty of God's good gifts to us every day.
- When we focus on what we lack, we fail to recognize what we have. When we focus on our abundant blessings, we find ourselves giving thanks.

This Thanksgiving we choose to pause and give thanks and to be grateful. We choose to look past the things we lack, the bothersome or the frightening things, so we are able to see the reasons for giving thanks every single day of the year to come.

PRAYER: Heavenly Father, Almighty God, I am thankful for the abundant blessings you bestow upon me. May I never take your blessings for granted. Help me to remain mindful of your goodness and to share your love and kindness with others. Help me to live each day with a spirit of gratitude, recognizing your hand in every blessing and trusting you in every moment. Amen

Facility Happenings

Thanks to all our members and guest for attending and participating in our Halloween party. The entertainment committee did are great job planning and decorating the building, and the kitchen staff was kept the food coming. We have two big celebration coming up, the Marine Corps Birthday and Thanks Giving Day Dinner in the canteen. We are looking forward to you joining us. We have allot of members or guest come in to the canteen with back packs, do not be offended if one of the MAs ask you to check your back pack, especially if they don't know you. This is for your safety of all our members and family visiting the canteen. I will be contacting local elementary school to get a list of family names that are eligible for Thanksgiving food gift cards. Lat year we supported 46 familles.

Thanks for your support.

MILITARY HISTORY EVENTS AND SITES IN THE VIRGINIA, MARYLAND, AND WASHINGTON, D.C. AREA –November 2026

Fellow VFW Post 1503 members, as crisp autumn air settles over Northern Virginia and the leaves turn, November invites us to honor the sacrifices that built and defended our nation. This month marks both Veterans Day on the 11th and the 251st birthday of the United States Marine Corps on the 10th, while America's 250th anniversary continues to spotlight our Revolutionary War roots. From local parades and museum specials to solemn ceremonies nearby, the NoVA area offers rich opportunities to walk the ground of history, connect with fellow veterans, and reflect on the service that defines us.

Closer to home in Prince William County, the National Museum of the Marine Corps in Triangle celebrates Veterans Day weekend, the Corps' 251st birthday, and the museum's own 20th anniversary with a full slate of free or low-cost programs. On Saturday, November 7, Family Day (10 a.m.–3 p.m.) features hands-on activities, gallery guides, and family fun in Leatherneck Gallery. Visitors can pick up free flags (November 7–11) to place along the trails of Semper Fidelis Memorial Park in honor of veterans. Cake-cutting ceremonies for the Marine Corps birthday take place on November 10 at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m., with complimentary cake. Special screenings of We, The Marines and the premiere of America the Beautiful round out the offerings. The museum's permanent galleries remain an outstanding way to experience Marine history from Tun Tavern to the present.

Just a short drive away at Fort Belvoir, the National Museum of the United States Army hosts Veterans Day programming, including the Art of Valor event with the Patriot Art Foundation and artist Mary Whyte on November 7. Timed free tickets are available online for the interactive galleries that span the Army's story from Valley Forge through the Global War on Terror. Admission is free, and Veterans Day itself is a fitting time to visit.

In Old Town Manassas on Saturday, November 7, the 18th Annual Northern Virginia Veterans Parade steps off at 11 a.m. through Historic Downtown. Dedicated to all U.S. Armed Forces past, present, and future, this year's Grand Marshal is retired U.S. Army Colonel Steele McGonegal, who spent much of his career with the 29th Infantry Division. The same day and into the following week, Flags for Heroes displays American flags on the Manassas Museum lawn (sponsored by Bull Run Rotary) to honor local heroes. On Veterans Day itself, the Robert V. McMaugh Memorial American Legion Post 10 holds its annual ceremony at 11 a.m. at the Harris Pavilion.

Further afield but still accessible, Arlington National Cemetery hosts the 73rd annual National Veterans Day Observance on November 11 at 11 a.m. in the Memorial Amphitheater (free and open to the public; tram required from the Welcome Center). At George Washington's Mount Vernon, active duty, former, and retired military personnel receive free admission on November 11 as part of "Mount Vernon Salutes Veterans," with ongoing America 250 exhibits on Revolutionary War life. In Leesburg, the George C. Marshall International Center hosts its 22nd Annual Veterans Day Celebration on November 11 at Dodona Manor (free, with tours, vintage vehicles, and a community barbecue).
