COMMANDER'S CALL

Comrades and Auxiliary Members,

September is upon us, and that means football season! Last month, I mentioned that DirecTV had lost the commercial distribution rights to NFL Sunday Ticket and that we'd be making some infrastructure changes to get ready for the season. Well, they managed to get everything straightened out at the last minute and worked out a deal with EverPass to continue distributing NFL Sunday Ticket, so we're all set for kickoff! This year, we're also planning a special game-day menu on Sundays, so come out to the canteen, grab something to eat, and watch the games with your fellow members.

Speaking of menus, our new canteen menu is scheduled to go live on Labor Day, September 7th. Carl and our staff have put a lot of work into getting everything ready, and we're excited to finally roll it out. As I mentioned last month, any time you make a change like this, there are bound to be some growing pains. Please be patient with our bartenders and kitchen staff while everyone gets accustomed to the new items and procedures. I'm looking forward to hearing what everyone thinks once we've had a chance to settle in.

This month also marks twenty-five years since the terrorist attacks of September 11th, 2001. For many of us, the memories of that day remain as vivid today as they were twenty-five years ago. We remember where we were, what we were doing, and the disbelief we felt as we watched the events unfold.

Nearly 3,000 people lost their lives that day, including hundreds of firefighters, law enforcement officers, and other first responders who ran toward danger while others were trying to escape it. In the days and years that followed, another generation of American servicemen and women answered the call to defend our country, many of whom would sacrifice their lives or return home forever changed by their service.

As veterans, we have a special responsibility to remember – not only those we lost on September 11th, but also those who served and sacrificed in the years that followed. Please join us in the canteen at 6:00 PM on September 11th as we pause to remember and honor them. Twenty-five years have passed, but we have not forgotten.

August was another busy month around Post 1503.

On August 21st, we had a great turnout of golfers and volunteers for our annual Golf Tournament. Events like this don't happen without a lot of work behind the scenes, so a big thank you goes to Comrade Jordan and his team, along with everyone who volunteered, sponsored, played, or otherwise helped make the tournament a success. Great job!

Then, on August 29th, we loaded up the bus and headed to New York City with a completely sold-out trip! Congratulations to Comrades Ortiz and Goya and everyone else who helped put the trip together. Judging by the response, I think it's safe to say our members enjoy getting out of town every once in a while!

Shirts are in! After a couple of attempts to get inventory onto the shelves before our members bought everything in sight, we've officially restarted the Post store. Our first batch of shirts is now available for sale in the canteen. Stop by and take a look while we have your size. We're continuing to work on expanding what we offer, so keep an eye out for more Post 1503 merchandise in the future.

September also brings POW/MIA Recognition Day. On September 18th at 6:00 PM, we'll hold a POW/MIA ceremony in the canteen. The POW/MIA flag and the empty table serve as reminders that there are American servicemen and women who never returned home and families who never received the answers they deserved. I encourage everyone who can to join us as we honor them and reaffirm that they are not forgotten.

We have plenty of other things happening around the Post this month as well, including the MOC/MOCA Flea Market, the Department School of Instruction, and even an AI training session on September 26th. And looking a little further ahead, don't forget about our Author Showcase on October 17th. VFW and Auxiliary authors will receive a free table to sell and sign their books, and non-members may reserve a table for $20. See the flyer for additional details.

As we head into the fall, there's a lot happening at Post 1503, and none of it happens without our members. Whether you're volunteering at an event, helping behind the scenes, bringing a prospective member into the Post, or simply showing up and supporting what we're doing, you're helping make Post 1503 stronger.

Keep volunteering. Keep recruiting. Keep looking out for one another. And most importantly, keep remembering why we're here in the first place – to serve veterans, their families, and our community.

I'll see you around the Post.

Hello! Pup Tent 14 is looking to a busy month in September. The Cooties and Cootie Auxiliary will have our Flea Market on the 5th. Come see if you can snag a deal and get some great BBQ!

Also, the Cooties voted to raise $10,000 to buy a smoker for the veterans living at the Puller Veterans Care Center. If you would like to support the fundraiser, you can go to <https://givebutter.com/pvcc2026>

We are growing! Congratulations to Kendal, Danny, and Conrado for completing the 3rd Degree. We are happy to have them in our “crummy” organization!

Gold Star Mother's & Family's Day

Gold Star Mother's and Family's Day is observed on the last Sunday in September and stands as one of the most solemn and meaningful dates on our nation's calendar. For veterans, this day carries a unique significance. It honors not only the fallen brothers and sisters we remember, but also the families who continue to carry their legacy forward.

The Gold Star tradition began during World War I, when families displayed service flags in their windows. A blue star represented a loved one serving in uniform; a gold star signified that the service member had been killed in action. What started as a simple symbol quickly became a national emblem of honor, grief, and resilience.

One mother, Grace Darling Seibold, transformed her personal loss into a mission of compassion. After her son George was killed in 1918, she dedicated herself to supporting other grieving mothers. Her efforts led to the founding of American Gold Star Mothers, Inc. in 1928 – a service organization that remains active today, supporting veterans, families, and communities across the country.

For veterans, the gold star is more than a symbol – it is a reminder of the comrades who never returned home. For families, it represents a loved one whose life ended in service to the nation. The gold star embodies honor for the service member's sacrifice, grief carried by those left behind, pride in a legacy of courage, and resilience in the face of unimaginable loss to the family left behind. Today, hundreds of thousands of Gold Star Families live across the United States. Their stories continue to shape our nation's understanding of service and sacrifice.

Veterans' groups play a vital role in keeping the legacy of Gold Star Families alive with memorial and wreath-laying ceremonies, moments of silence for fallen comrades, community gatherings to support surviving families, and educational programs for our younger generations. These observances strengthen the bond between veterans and the families who share in the cost of service. They also ensure that Gold Star Families never feel alone in their grief. Organizations such as American Gold Star Mothers, TAPS, and numerous veterans' service groups continue to provide support, advocacy, and community for those navigating life after loss.

Gold Star Mother's and Family's Day is not just a national observance – it is personal. It honors the memory of those who served beside us and acknowledges the families who stood behind them. It reinforces a promise shared across generations of service members:

We will never forget the sacrifice of our fallen heroes, nor the families who bear their memory.

CHAPLAIN'S CORNER

Need a HUG? Give a HUG...

I remember a line from one of my favorite shows that stuck with me: “The best way to help yourself is to put your arm around someone who needs it more than you do.” It seems to me, we receive the most joy and make the biggest difference when we use our God-given abilities to help those God brings into our lives, whether they be our family, friends, neighbors, coworkers, or a perfect stranger.

Helping Others is Good for What Ails Us!

Studies have shown that symptoms of stress and depression can be eased by volunteering and serving the needs of others. Helping others is a proven way to divert our attention from our own worries. Using our gifts and talents builds self-confidence, energy, and strength.

Helping Others Builds Friendships.

When we help others, a bond inevitably forms. A passage in the New Testament reads: “... let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another.” I am certain this is a key ingredient in the recipe for how we should live and thrive.

Helping Others Strengthens Us.

Helping others has a way of moving us out of our comfort zones and allows us to grow. It's not so much about what we can do; rather, it's about what God can do within us and through us. That's when we start eagerly walking through the doors to help others that God opens before us. God not only calls those already equipped to serve, but he also equips those he calls to serve.

Opportunities to help others are all around us. We need only recognize these opportunities when they present themselves; and, when a door to help others opens in front of us, walk through it and receive the blessings that are waiting on the other side.

PRAYER: Heavenly Father, Almighty God, open my eyes to see the needs of those around me. Fill my heart with your love and compassion, and give me the courage to step in and help. Father, help me to recognize that sometimes the best way to help myself is to help someone else whose needs are greater than mine. Amen

FACILITY HAPPENINGS

After weeks of discussions and changes the new menu will finally be available September 7th. Thank you for your patience on this. September is a big month for birthdays so happy birthday in advance to all Virgo and Libra born members. We also have many planned activities in the pavilion. It's good to see it being used the way it was intended. I will remind all members that the pavilion and the entire property is drug free, and you cannot bring your own alcohol unless you have an ABC license. You are allowed to buy alcohol in the canteen and take it outside in a plastic cup, and beer cans are allowed outside. Please dump your cans and cups in the trash when you're done. We are working on putting equipment in place to extend our wifi to the pavilion. I am looking forward to a Sunday afternoon game in the pavilion. Lastly, we have equipment coming to allow us to put the NFL games on the three new TVs in the Canteen. Thanks for your support and understanding.
